COACHES'

WELCOME BACK! The Athletic Chairmen hope the coming year will be enjoyable and injury free. Any suggestions for the Seminary sports program will be greatly appreciated.

To get the FOOTBALL SEASON under way we need dorm coaches. So far, we have them for Princeton-Windsor (Dave Cassel) and Brown Hall (Bill Grimbol). But we still need them for Alexander, Hodge-Erdman and North. Once they have been selected, please call me.

GYM KEYS are now being distributed; every dormitory will eventually have at least one--ROGER LEHMAN has a set, and a complete listing will be in next week's Wineskin.

For you summer softball buffs--the PTS team was finally dethroned this year as University Champions. Even though most of last year's team returned, new manager BOB ("The Hook") RICHARDSON was greeted by a losing season. Bob replaced the legendary DEAL HUDSON, who retired.

GOOD LUCK TO ALL IN THE COMING YEAR: We look forward to working with you.
Bruce (452-8387) and Mal (452-9585)

3. ROGER CRAMER made the pottery on the Communion table in Miller Chapel. He will be on campus for dinner, for meeting with students at 7 PM to discuss plastic arts and pottery as potential expressions of the Christian faith and to act as celebrant in an 8 PM Eucharistic service at which Herbert Anderson will preach. The service will begin with a dedication of the communion vessels. A clipping telling about Roger Cramer is on the Bulletin Board in the Miller Chapel basement. ADD

COACHES' CORNER

We are sorry for any inconveniences caused by the gym key mix-up--even locksmiths make mistakes.

Football begins this week, and the championship is up for grabs. Since last year's legendary team--the champion INDEPENDENTS--has broken up, all of the teams have a good chance. We look for lots of scoring and a mad scramble for the highly coveted PTS championship. As any past champion can tell you, a drink from the prized chalice can inspire one to new theological heights. So go to it! Mal & Bruce.

COACHES' CORNER

Last Wednesday saw the opening of the PTS INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL SEASON. The opening game, Princeton-Windsor Warriors vs. Brown Hall Bombers, was played before a sell-out crowd of four children on their way home from school, two tireless joggers and Dr. West's ever elusive dog. In a fiercely contested struggle, defense played a major part as PW edged Brown, 14-6. Dave Cassell scored the first touchdown on a run (it was really more of a walk) and Kim Nelson scored the game-winner on a pass from Cassell.

The day's second scheduled game was not played because North claimed they were not able to field an adequate team at such an early (?) date. Alexander Hall (North's scheduled opponents) and the Athletic Dept. have requested all renowned theologians and historians to join in a search for the "historical North." Hopefully, the game will be played at a later date.

We are pleased to announce the year's first recipient of the Rev. Jack Daniels Higher Inspiration Award. This award will be presented weekly to the Player of the Week. Because of his outstanding offensive and defensive contributions throughout the game Kim Nelson is this week's winner. By the way, Kim, you can leave the money in our box.

It is much too early to make a prediction as to who the champions will be. At this moment Alex and P-W seem to have the edge. However, it has been rumored that Mike McCoy is assembling one heaven of a team for the Hodge-Erdman Heroes. So look out for a mad scramble throughout the entire season.

If there happens to be a question about whether a game will be played on a day of inclement weather, we will make a decision before 12:30 P.M. on the game day. Coaches, look for us in the Campus Center if you are in doubt.

Oh--the single Brown score was made by Cernisky. Bruce-Mal

BARMEN DECLARATION 40TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION: 28 OCTOBER - 2 NOVEMBER. On May 29-31, 1934, a group of businessmen, theologians, scientists and teachers met in Barmen, Germany, to organize opposition to establishment of the German Protestant Church. Their claim--that the G.P.C. so united gospel and patriotism as to condone the policies of Hitler's 3d Reich--resulted in a document known as the Declaration of Barmen. Princeton Theological Seminary will commemorate that meeting this October 28 - November 1. Daily Chapel services will focus on the themes of the Declaration and its effect as a Confession of the Church. Other events will include a Service of Holy Communion Wednesday evening and a Thursday afternoon lecture. To prepare yourself for this week, become familiar with the Declaration; it is found in the Book of Confessions. The Chapel Committee per Sherry Brabham.

EQUALITY SEMINAR: "LOVE, JUSTICE AND EQUALITY: THE CHURCH'S CONTRIBUTION," is the focus of an October 28-31 seminar at PTS' Center of Continuing Education. So important is the Seminary's contribution to understanding this subject considered that three of the principal lectures will be made open to the public and held in Miller Chapel, beginning at 7:30 P.M.

Charles C. West, "Justice and Equality in Modern American Society--a Theological Viewpoint." Monday, October 28

Glendon E. Bryce, "Justice, Love and Equality as a Biblical Theme--the Old Testament and Today." Tuesday, October 29

Geddes W. Hanson, "Justice, Love and Equality in the Work of the Congregation--Personal and Social Ministry of the Church." Wednesday, October 30

A grant from the New Jersey Committee for the Humanities (an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities) will support attendance by at least a third of the usual 30 participants from groups generally underrepresented--women, minority persons and working people.

Last year their efforts produced several hundred cookies, some far-out cakes and breads--and funds for the Center's library.

COACHES' CORNER

In last Wednesday's lone game the Brown Bombers shut out the Hodge-Erdman Heroes, 22 - 0. The old saying that one man does not a team make was shot to pieces by the play of "Magnificent" MOORE. Moore threw three touchdown passes, ran for one extra point and passed for another. The touchdown passes were caught by STARR, COMINSKY and MAHONEY. As the last second of play ticked off, there was little doubt that Mr. Moore would be this week's recipient of the Reverend Jack Daniel's Higher Inspiration Award. Congratulations for a fine game, Mr. Moore!

Brown's stunning victory was not, however, the big news of the week. Those people sent out to find the "Historical North" came back empty handed. The once-feared North Neptunes no longer exist! These reporters have learned that the North management could not provide adequate salaries for their players. (It's obvious that Mr. White's Bible sales did not gross as much as expected this summer.) However, all is not lost. Mike McCOY, general manager for Hodge-Erdman, has graciously allowed those North players who so desire to play for his team. This gives North people a chance to participate and will hopefully beef up the Hodge-Erdman pass-and-a-prayer offense. Mr. McCoy was hoping for an immediate occurrence of the parousia during last week's halftime, but the Superstar failed to appear. Maybe he will find such in one of the North players. (George GAFFGA, are you listening?)

The demise of the North club has resulted in some schedule changes. Except for the week of 23 October, when North had a bye, there will be ONE GAME A WEEK from now on. On those days, starting time will be 1:45. SEASON TICKET HOLDERS PLEASE MAKE A NOTE OF THIS. If coaches desire to play a team, a second game can be arranged. If two teams want to play a second time, please let us know before Wednesday (P-W and Brown could play again, as could Brown and Hodge-Erdman-North.)

TWO NOTES: Bruce DELVENTHAL is not PTS' answer to Emmet Ashford.
It's not too early to think about the three-person basketball tournament.
Women, how about entering a team this year? Bruce-Mal.

NOTES

1. EQUALITY SEMINAR HIGHLIGHTS THEOLOGIANS' FALL SEASON: A new format and the possibility of enrolling new types of Continuing Education students at PTS will be inaugurated with the 28 - 31 October seminar, "Love, Justice and Equality: The Church's Contribution." Professor Charles C. West will be the leader. A grant from the N.J. Committee for the Humanities, an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities, will support attendance by at least 1/3 of the usual 30 participants from groups generally underrepresented--minority persons, women and working people. Representatives from area churches have been particularly invited to the public evening lectures; scheduling them on evenings, rather than during the days, was also made possible by the NJCH grant. A similar seminar, focused on different themes and led by other Seminary faculty members, will be held in the spring under the leadership of Dr. John H. Mulder, assistant professor of church history.

2. All members of the Princeton Seminary Community--students, faculty, spouses--are welcome to learn how the ministries of Keith Miller, Bruce Larson, Lyman Coleman, Karl Olsson & Lloyd Ogilvie can be incorporated into their own discovery of what the Church is intended to be: a life together, a doorway to relationships. Leaders: Stan Jones, Karl Olsson (Faith at Work staff). Cost: $10 single, $15 couples. Information: Steve Jacobs, Christie Erway, Gene Stoeckley--but HURRY!

BARMEN DECLARATION: FORTY YEARS AGO, IN BARMEN, GERMANY, A GROUP REPRESENTING VARIOUS MOVEMENTS IN OPPOSITION TO ESTABLISHMENT OF THE GERMAN PROTESTANT CHURCH MET IN THE CONFESSIONAL SYNOD OF THE GERMAN EVANGELICAL CHURCH. Their goal was reformation. These businessmen, theologians, scientists, teachers--Protestant churchmen--understood the distorting phenomena of the "gospel and patriotism" union in Germany following World War I. They recognized that the Christian message and hope had been contracted to make it synonymous with 3d Reich policy under Hitler and claimed that the formation of the German Protestant Church was invalid--that it was founded on "false doctrine . . . force and insincere practices." The document resulting from this historic meeting is the DECLARATION OF BARMEN.

During the week of 28 October Princeton Seminary will commemorate this event. Daily Chapel services will focus on the six points of Declaration, with their Biblical Texts as the lectionary. The Seminary Choir will sing at both the Wednesday evening Service of Holy Communion and the Friday Chapel service.

Historically and theologically the Declaration of Barmen is significant. It is included in the Book of Confession of the United Presbyterian Church.

6. Are your problems mounting? Is everyone looking at you? Are your professors out to get you? Has your weekly trip to the K-I lost its meaning? Or some of the above? If so, you are not alone. Come and learn about a Christian approach to counseling, developed by Chaplain Earl Jabay of the New Jersey Neuro-psychiatric Hospital. Don't miss this helpful presentation.

7. DANIEL M. BERRY, III, baritone, pianist and composer, will present an informal public concert. He will be assisted on the drums by JOSEPH E. FILER, IV. Mr. Berry's program, to a large extend in the jazz genre, features his own composition, "Back to the Land," which he explains as his homesick reaction to a hard winter's day of work in New Jersey. He will also play and sing a James Taylor medley, arrangements of some of the Carpenters' songs and several of the favorites from the 40's and 50's. Mr. Berry, who was born blind, attracted ation-wide attention in the summer of 1972 for his appearances on WLAC Nashville, a radio tation at that time associated with CBS. "I am not sure of a precise correlation," he ays, "but the following year the station dropped its CBS connection and now plays only ard rock records." A year in the making after a local announcer heard Dan in concert, he program stressed the difficulty handicapped persons have persuading the general public hat their physical problems in no way impair their learning or performing abilities.

Mr. Berry attended Maryville College and was graduated from Davidson College. He tudied piano privately and at the Blair Academy of Music; his voice lessons were for the ost part at Maryville. His most useful musical abilities, however, were developed at home, nder his father's guidance. The elder Mr. Berry, now President of the Better Business Bureau Nashville, where Dan grew up, toured the southwestern states with his own combo as a oung man. "Dad and I really needed each other," says Dan. "Between his tenor saxophone clarinet and my piano, we really enjoyed each other's company."

OACHES'

In spite of apathy and the fact that coaches did not read the corrected schedules, a football game was played last Wednesday--and what a game it was! In the season's best action to date, Alexander Hall edged Brown, 7 - 0. The lone score of the game came on a pass from Alex quarterback CAMPBELL to a young man streaking down the sidelines in a dark blue "Duke" T=shirt. The touchdown play was set up by a pass from Campbell to IFF CAIN, who made a tremendous catch. The scoring play came late in the first half, and e remainder of the game saw the Alex defense repeatedly turn back the Brown bid to score. edit must go to Brown coach BILL GRIMBOL for the fine job he has done. The Brown team ich played Alex was much improved from the one which played P-W. Warriors, you should be ad you met Brown early in the season! [Continued overleaf.]

The choice of Player of the Week was extremely hard to make, so hard, in fact, that we have TWO award winners this time. We do not want to water down the Rev. Jack award by giving to two people, so we have created a new prize. This, presented to that player whose performance merits special mention, is the Heaven Hill Holy Hero Award. It goes this time to Brown Quarterback MOORE for his fine job, despite his team's loss. The week's Rev. Jack Daniels Higher Inspiration Award is given CLIFF CAIN. Mr. Cain, a veteran of three seasons, played his best game ever. After the fray, Alex players were reported to have "raised Cain" for his "Abel" performance.

COACHES, PLEASE CHECK THE SCHEDULES!! If there are any questions, give us a call. A reminder to those interested in ice skating: Let us know BEFORE the last minute.

NOTES

1. Mr. McCausland is Director of the Department of Specialized Ministries, Christian Associates of Southwest Pennsylvania. He received his education at Hamline, Western Reserve and Ohio State Universities; the School of Pastoral Care, Protestant Episcopal Church, Diocese of Western Massachusetts; and the University of Pittsburgh Medical School. Those fortunate enough to know him "share in a wealth of understanding and love that has come about from 45 years of ministering to one's fellowman as a professional social settlement house worker, a minister of membership and evangelism of a Methodist Church with a membership of 4200, and a pastoral counselor and marriage consultant. He has a unique gift of helping others find the way to the wholeness of life that God intends for all of us." An author and radio personality, he has contributed many articles to such journals as National Recreation, The Christian Advocate and Pastoral Psychology; has for eight years written a regular newspaper column; and includes among his published books "Opening the Door to Jesus," "Making God Real," "Prayer-Centered Listening" and "The Sign Language of Prayer."

2. The Special Services Committee plans the evening communion services, Advent and Lenten programs and any other special worship services on campus. Your suggestions and/or help will be appreciated. Christy Erway, Chairperson, Special Services Committee.

3. Thomas John Carlisle is the author of more than 1,000 published poems. For the past 25 years he has been Pastor of the Stone Street Presbyterian Church, Watertown, New York. His afternoon workshop will relate poetry to religion. The evening function--part lecture, part a reading from his poetry, part discussion--and the Chapel service are open to the public.

Dr. Carlisle's poetry, published in more than 100 periodicals, is in part collected into three volumes: "You, Jonah," "Celebration" and "Mistaken Identity." A native of Plattsburgh, New York, he is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Williams College and earned his theological degree at Union Seminary, New York. Of his four sons, three are presently studying toward the pastoral ministry; twins David Livingstone and Jonathan Tristram are first-year students at PTS.

4. The Seminary community is invited to a concert to benefit CROP--the Church World Service Hunger Appeal. The concert will be an informal presentation of the various talents found lurking in this community, with some humorous sketches, a wide spectrum of music (blue grass, folk and folk/rock, light classics and favorites from the past two decades), and some interpretive reading. The donation is 50¢ per person. We hope that in our own way we can help to acknowledge the tremendous problems of hunger in the world and contribute the money to an organization which works to educate as well as relieve disaster areas. We would like to see the whole community there. We welcome youth groups, faculty families and friends. Come, join us in the coffeehouse atmosphere of the main dining room!

COACHES' CORNER

Last Wednesday saw a re-match of the previous week's Brown-Alex game. The results of this latest encounter, however, were vastly different from their previous meeting. Brown lived up to their name by bombing the Alligators, 30-0. Coach BILL GRIMBOL has brought his team along slowly and, as they near season's end, the Bombers emerge as the League's finest.

Each member seems to have caught the spirit, with individual play improving weekly. Perhaps this "spirit" is the cause of the strange noises emanating from the Brown huddle--and the many tongue-in-cheek comments Brown players are quoted as saying. Whatever, the spirit, it is moving Brown to the mountain top.

This week's winner of the Rev. Jack Daniels Higher Inspiration Award has already been so honored. Mr. MOORE, the Brown quarterback, played another outstanding game, throwing three touchdown passes. Not only has Moore received the award before; his consistent performance has shown him to be the top quarterback in the League.

This week's Heaven Hill Holy Hero Award goes to Mr. ORRISMAN for his three interceptions, which helped along the Brown shut-out. Special mention, also of RON "The Buzzed Bomber" LARGE. [One hideous pun on the extent of Mr. Large's performance is here deleted. ed.]

NB: When someone has reserved Whitely Gymnasium for a week night--such as using it for a youth group--please respect his reservation rights. There is plenty of room for all, but those with reservations have priority. Please consider this before causing any embarrassment for those who are present with youth (or other) groups.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dr. Ahlstrom is especially interested in American religious and intellectual history and their European background. As Professor of American History and Modern Religious History at Yale, he teaches in the Divinity School, the Departments of History and Religious Studies and the American Studies Program. He served as Chairman of the American Studies Program from 1967 to 1971 and as its interim chairman last year. In 1972-73 he was Director of graduate work in the religious studies department.

He enlisted in the Army of the United States Transportation Corps in 1942, shortly following his graduation from Gustavus Adolphus College. He received an M.A. from the University of Minnesota in 1946, holds a Ph.D. from Harvard and in 1964 was awarded an honorary M.A. by Yale. Before accepting his faculty appointment from Yale, he had been a member of the Harvard University faculty. In 1962 he was a visiting professor at Princeton University. His volume "Religious History of the American People," published by Yale University Press (1972) received the 1973 National Book Award in the category of Philosophy and Religion and the 1974 Brotherhood Award of the National Council of Christians and Jews. Other publications include a history of the Harvard Divinity School and one on Theology in America (in the Princeton Univ. Press Religion in America series), "The American Protestant Encounter with World Religions" and many articles in the field.

NOTICES

REGARDING THE THANKSGIVING BANQUET AT PRINCETON SEMINARY:

TUESDAY, 26 NOVEMBER, is the day for the Seminary Thanksgiving banquet. Along with this fact comes a certain tension, however. On the one hand, there is the need for a change of pace in the cafeteria, and the expectation of a feast to celebrate the American tradition of Thanksgiving. On the other hand, we are faced with the rising cost of food, the critical lack of food in other parts of the country and the world, and the reality of living in a land of plenty surrounded by a world of want.

In light of this situation, we are asking several things:

FIRST: that ALL non-boarding students make reservations for the banquet. Reservations MUST be made with Mr. Aspras by 4:30 P.M., 25 November (Extension 225).

SECOND: that everyone come to join in the festivities. Come to eat--but not to over-eat.

THIRD: that you take only what you will eat, and eat all of what you take.
Food is quickly becoming a critical matter throughout the world.
Let us choose to come to the feast, in thanksgiving.
Let us also remember our neighbors who have no choice, but are compelled to fast.

SEMINARY WIVES' FELLOWSHIP: The next meeting will be 5 December. Please note CHANGE IN DAY, to Thursday. A panel discussion by ministers' wives will be presented at 7:30 in Tennant Hall Lounge. If you have questions or topics you would like discussed, please give them to Karen Martin (452-1955).

THE SEMINARY CONFERENCE considered the following matters at its November meeting:

1. The Snack Bar--should be open by Christmas. Late Sunday hours and openings during recess periods were discussed, as well as the possible availability of music and recreational facilities.
2. The Dining Hall--should soon open before 7:30 A.M. Sundays. It will be possible to hold fasts, with portions of board funds turned over to charitable organizations, twice each year. The Conference was concerned that less food be wasted by persons on meal plans.
3. The Library: Late Saturday and Sunday hours were reviewed.
4. Recreational Facilities: Efforts are under way to provide access for Seminary Students to certain university and town facilities.

5. Placement--The problems and prospects of women/minority placement were considered and a committee will be appointed to consult with the various offices and persons whose reponsibilities fall in this area.
6. Questions relating to the admissions of women/minorities, as well as a proposal for mid-term course evaluations, are already on the agenda for the 3 December meeting.

Charles Willard.

COACHES' CORNER

The Princeton-Windsor Warriors kept their undefeated record in last Wednesday's game against the Alex Alligators; however, they did not end the game as victors--the final score was a 0-0 tie. Neither team made a serious scoring threat, and one must wonder if the tie was the result of tremendous defensive play or lackluster offensive performances by both teams. Despite reports to the contrary, P-W did not use its famous cop-out play (a policeman running a pass pattern). Evidently P-W was a bit upset over several calls, but Alex coach JEFF BEAMS stood firm and would say nothing other than (quoting Psalm 50:9): "I will accept no bull from your apartments." The last word clearly is a transliteration, but in our opinion Jeff was right on the beam.

This week's Rev. Jack Daniel's Higher Inspiration Award goes to Alex defensive back STEVE KENGETER. Steve made the key play in the game, intercepting a pass to thwart a P-W scoring drive. The "Geter" used his guitar playing abilities to the fullest by plucking the pass right out of the air. This week also sees the institution of a new award. For his play and comments during the game we award the Woody Hayes' Sportsmanship/Edward Dowey Rules Interpretation Award to KIM NELSON. This award is a combination one because elimination of either part would not be an adequate portrayal of the full Nelson.

All teams in the league should be glad that the best athlete on campus was merciful and chose not to play. JEFF BEAMS limited himself to coaching--grace in its most benevolent form.

Keep an eye out for information on the three-person basketball tournament, coming soon.

NOTES

1. A 24 - 26 seminar, "Ecumenism in the Past, Present and Future," is jointly sponsored by the PTS Center of Continuing Education and the Ecumenical Commission of the Diocese of Trenton, with Princeton Seminary as host. The occasion marks the 10th anniversary of the Decree on Ecumenism signed by the Fathers of Vatican II on 21 November 1964, cited as "the most significant step toward Christian unity officially taken by Roman Catholicism since the Reformation."

Cardinal Willebrands, a native of Holland ordained to the priesthood in 1934, received his doctorate in theology from the Angelicum, Rome, and was appointed Rector of the diocesan seminary in Warmond, the Netherlands. Founder of the Catholic Conference for Ecumenical questions, he became the Roman Catholic Dutch representative for ecumenical affairs and, in 1960, became Secretary of the Vatican Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity. He was ordained a Bishop in 1964 and in 1969 was chosen to succeed Cardinal Bea; he was created a cardinal the same year.

Father Brown holds doctoral degrees in theology from St. Mary's University, Baltimore, and Semitic languages from Johns Hopkins, as well as honorary doctorates from Edinburgh and Uppsala Universities. Author of some 10 books on the Bible, he recently edited an interchurch study of "Peter in the New Testament." He is Auburn Professor of Biblical Studies at Union Theological Seminary, New York, and is the only American member of the Roman Pontifical Biblical Commission. Father Brown, long associated with the ecumenical movement, is a member of the Faith and Order Commission of the World Council of Churches.

Bishop Ahr was Professor of Systematic Theology and Rector of Immaculate Conception Seminary, Burlington, New Jersey, until his appointment and consecration as Bishop of Trenton in 1950. Since then he has been the Ordinary of one of the fastest growing dioceses in this country. Greatly interested and involved in ecumenism, he attended the 1962-65 Second Vatican Council in Rome.

2. Along with the Thanksgiving Banquet comes a certain tension--on one hand is the need for a change of pace in the cafeteria and the expectation of a feast to celebrate the American tradition of thanks-giving; on the other, we are faced with the rising cost of food, the critical lack of food in other parts of the country and the world, and the reality of living in a land of plenty surrounded by a world of want. We are, therefore, asking several things: First: that ALL non-boarding students make reservations for the Banquet; these must be made with Mr. Aspras (extension 225) by 4:30 P.M., 25 November. Second: that everyone come to join in the festivities. Come to eat--but not to over-eat. Third: that you take only what you will eat and eat all of what you take. Food has become a critical matter throughout the world. Let us choose to come to the feast, in thanks-giving. Let us also remember our neighbors, who have no choice, but are compelled to fast.

3. The unusual piano styling of "Jimmy Banana," the country comic guitar picking of "Dusty Chaps" and the comedy patter of "Brother James" will be the featured entertainment. Playing all three roles will be TH.M. CANDIDATE the Reverend JAMES D. SHANNON, a United Presbyterian pastor and Navy Chaplain who is attending PTS on a naval graduate fellowship. Before entering the clergy, he was a professional musician and entertainer in Chicago and the midwest--on the road with dance orchestras and working single routines on the hotel circuit for Artists Corporation of America. He has also appeared as Grandstand Show Organist with a Fred Waring touring orchestra at State Fairs in seven states, has backed shows for international entertainers here and abroad and has been sideman for such variety acts as Roger Miller, Emmett Kelly, Jr., Myron Floren and the Harmonicats. His piano playing is featured with the Somers Isles Dixieland Jazz Band recorded earlier this year in Bermuda and soon to be released.

Backing the act will be the "Banana Bunch" (music with a peel [?!! ed.])--seminarians Joe Filer on drums and Richard Signore with the precision bass. Also featured will be a satiric sketch by the "Theological Thespians"--seminarians Bob Phillips and Will Hartfelder.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY: with a real, live Santa! Main Lounge, Campus Center. 3 - 5 P.M. [See Note 5.]

NOTES

1. ABS members with children are asked to bring them to the service, so that names can be exchanged for Christmas gifts.

2. Dr. Schmemann will explore current practices of offering money together with tokens of the secular sphere--symbols of vocations, culture, art, nature--and often with the bread and wine of communion. Dr. Dowey will respond, speaking from the Reformed tradition.

Dr. Schmemann, a antive of Estonia, was educated in Paris and at St. Sergius Theological Institute. He joined the faculty of St. Vladimir's in 1951, becoming Dean in 1962, and also occupies the chair of Liturgical and Pastoral Theology. For ten years, as an adjunct professor, he gave courses on Russian Religious Thought at Columbia and New York Universities and at Union and General Theological Seminaries. He holds honorary degrees from Iona College and General Theological Seminary. His publications in English include "The Historical Road of Eastern Orthodoxy," "Sacraments and Orthodoxy," "Ultimate Questions," "Introduction to Liturical Theology," "Great Lent," and "For the Life of the World," the last of which has appeared also in Greek, French, Italian, German and Finnish. He is a member of the editorial boards of The Journal of Ecumenical Studies and Worship.

3. The Reverend Dr. J. Christy Wilson, Jr., was born in Tabriz (Iran) of Presbyterian missionary parents. He is an alumnus of Princeton University, Princeton Seminary, the University of Edinburgh and Columbia Teachers College. In 1951 he and his wife went to Afghanistan, where he taught for five years under the Royal Afghan Ministry of Education and served as Acting Principal of Habibia High School, Kabul. During this time, with the approval of the government, the first Protestant Sunday School and Church in the country were organized for alien residents. These cordial relations disappeared with a change in national leadership, and the church was demolished. Dr. Wilson is now guests lecturer at Gordon Conwell Seminary.

4. Members with concerns or questions they would like discussed should inform Karen Martin (452-1955).

5. All Seminary children are invited. Parents are asked to bring a gift for each of their own children with the name clearly marked for Santa to distribute.

Mercer Street Stadium lies vacant under the pitiless leaden skies, now that intramural football has ended for the year. The season's champions, the Princeton-Windsor Warriors, were the only undefeated team, for which praise goes to Coach DAVE CASSEL. Second place was captured by the Brown Bombers, who were defeated once; and third, to the Alexander Alligators, with one defeat and one tie.. Although interest in football proved substantially less than in previous years, those who participated had an enjoyable time.

As the season ends, we present the final award: The now-defunct North Hall Naptunes are granted the Rob Stuart Inverse Proporation Award--on the premise that the last shall be first. (By the way, Rob, this is not an Old Polish Proverb.) Special thanks go to EMMIT AYERS for his help lining the field--and for his comments on the ethics of the rules. Brother Ayers was kind enough to point out that we did not adhere sufficiently to that great theological rule book, the Interpreter's Bible.

ATTENTION!! The three-person BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT will be held Tuesday night, 10 December. Any team who wish to play must register! To do so, either consult Mal on campus or call (452-9585). This must be done no later than Friday, 6 December!!! Check the bulletin boards around campus for further details. Mal - Bruce

PS: Anyone interested in playing on the varsity basketball team, contact Mal.

MEATLESS MEALS — TODAY, THURSDAY, 5 DECEMBER, IS THE FIRST DAY FOR MEATLESS MEALS. All those boarders who signed up last week will find green slips attached to their board cards--a reminder that less emat = more grain. GREEN IS FOR GO! Others who wish to join this program are welcome. Just choose a meatless dish as you go through the cafeteria line. It is better for your health, for the PTS budget--and, in a long-range practice, for the world.

THANKSGIVING OFFERING — $120 was collected on Tuesday, 26 November, at the Thanksgiving Communion Service. The money was sent to World Relief Commission, a non-profit organization whose major attention is directed toward Africa and the Honduras. Our money will be used for general emergency relief.

LETTER TO SECRETARY BUTZ — 171 signatures in all were attached to the letter to Secretary Butz offered at the same Communion Service. The original was carried to Washington the following day; copies were also made and forwarded to the New Jersey U.S. Senators and Representatives and to President Ford.

Please bring a gift, with the name of the recipient CLEARLY MARKED, for each of your attending children.

The Council, which opened at the beginning of September, will now develop in smaller conferences around the world. The first will be in Guadalajara, 28 - 31 December 1974. It is hoped that some PTS students can participate.

CHRISTMAS CARDS: One of the season's joys is the exchange of Christmas cards with friends and colleagues. It has been suggested that members of the Seminary community extend greetings, instead, to the whole Seminary family. A special area in the Administration Building, appropriately decorated, will be set aside to display these cards, beginning 16 December. Any member of the Seminary family who wishes to place his card in this area is welcome to do so.

CAMPUS CENTER TO CLOSE: The Campus Center will be closed and sealed from 2 P.M., 20 December, until 30 December, for necessary maintenance work. NB: There will be no food service at the Cafeteria, nor will the lounges, auditorium, or any other of the building's facilities be available for use during the entire period.

TRANSPORTATION PROBLEMS?????? Specify your requirements--or your offer--on a 3 x 5 card, with your name, address and telephone number, and place the card on the TRANSPORTATION BULLETIN BOARD in the Hodge Hall Rotunda.

COACHES' CORNER

The Third Annual Three-Person Basketball Tournament will be held Thursday night, 10 December. Any students or faculty members of the Seminary are eligible to enter--just contact on campus, or by telephone, Malcolm Laing (452-9585). The best time to call is after 7:30 P.M. ENTRY DEADLINE IS MONDAY, 9 DECEMBER. Rules of the tourney and other useful information are on posters in each dormitory, Stuart Hall, Speer Library and the Campus Center. If no one calls, there will be no tournament. The initiative is yours--so let's hear from you.

This same initiative applies to the VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM. If we are to have one, you must show some interest--and soon. To schedule games, line up practice dates, etc., we must have solid indication of your interest. If you want to play on the varsity team, or have any questions concerning it, call either Bruce or Mal.

The intramural basketball season begins early next semester. The three-person tourney offers a chance to sharpen up your skills for intramurals--so enter!

Coming in future Wineskins: our fearless predictions! Watch for them. Bruce & Mal.

ANNOUNCEMENT

GRATITUDE--AND A PLEA FOR HELP

Help save 100,000 babies' lives--for just 10¢!
In 1972 the Canadian Government responded to your protest against massive seal kills in the Gulf of St. Lawrence by barring the practice to all nations and companies.

But the senseless, bloody slaughter continues on the Labrador Front--and of Harp Seals, already being considered for designation as an endangered species. 100,000 baby harp seals--virtually every seal puppy born last spring--met violent, inhumane death in the 1974 Harp Seal Hunt off the coast of Labradore, at the hands of Norwegian sealers.

A reporter for the London Daily Mirror reported: "I saw one hunter club a baby seal 13 times before skinning it. I heard a 'dead' seal scream twice as the hunter plunged the skinning knife into it." It is not uncommon for a mother seal to be beaten off while her baby is skinned before her eyes--then crawl back to nuzzle its carcass, trying futilely to breathe life into its corpse.

These seals belong, not to Norway, but to us all; and most of us want them left alone. There is nothing man needs from these intelligent mammals for his survival: This brutal slaughter serves only the profits of a few men and the whims of fashion.

A letter of protest, costing you only 10¢, will be helpful in preventing this wanton murder of helpless, gentle, intelligent mammals, as in 1972. Address: The Norwegian Ambassador, The Honorable S. Chr. Somerfelt, 3401 Massachusetts Avenue, Washington, D.C. 20007. International Fund for Animal Welfare.

BANDUNG ASSOCIATION:

The BANDUNG ASSOCIATION has been formed to meet the academic, social and cultural needs of those Seminarians who are of African, Asian or Indian heritage and to enrich the lives of all individuals preparing for the Christian ministry. It is named in honor of the historic African-Asian Conference (often called the Bandung Conference) held in Bandung, Indonesia, 18 - 24 April 1955. It was organized on the initiative of Indonesia, supported by Burma, Ceylon, India and Pakistan, which, with 24 other countries, sent delegations. The Conference reflected the five sponsors' dissatisfaction with what they regarded as the reluctance of Western powers to consult with them sufficiently on decisions affecting Asia and Africa.

Membership is open to all persons interested in the social and political needs of Africans and Asians.

All interested members of the Seminary community are invited to attend the first meeting of the Association, to be held Wednesday, 18 December 1974, at 7 P.M. in Room 314 Brown Hall. The Association will conduct a Forum on Friday, 21 February 1975, in the Campus Center, at a time to be announced. A worship service in memory of Malcolm X will also be conducted, at a time and place to be announced.

" . . If you pour out yourself for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday . . . and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose currents never fail." (Isaiah 58:10-11)

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCES:

The Student Government finds it necessary to discontinue the coffee-doughnuts service in the Stuart Hall Commons. Until this year the service paid for itself; this is no longer true. We sincerely regret this action.

The introductory material for the Ordination Examinations has arrived in the Office of Field Education. Please come in to receive your packet as soon as possible. D. Mackenzie.

Also--lock your doors and windows whenever you leave your office or your dormitory room. Do this even if you are only going to be absent for two minutes: That's all it takes to enter a room and remove valuables. W. E. Lawder.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE:

The Stewardship Committee is pleased to announce the results of the fall campaign: To date more than $1,200 has been given toward the seven organizations selected to receive the benefits from this drive. SEMINARY CONFERENCE: One concern brought before the Seminary Conference December meeting was the need expressed for a place set aside on the Seminary campus for three purposes: (1) private worship and meditation during hours exceeding those in which Miller Chapel is open; (3) the use by priests not affiliated directly with local parishes, to celebrate the Mass; and (3) use by students who wish to practice their sermon delivery.

Several options are under consideration; until specific arrangements are made, the following information may prove helpful:

1. Miller Chapel is regularly open from 7:30 A.M. to 11 P.M., Monday through Thursday, from 7:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M., Friday; and during scheduled events, Saturday and Sunday.

2. The Aquinas Institute (Stockton Street, across the parking lot from Speer Library) welcomes all priests who wish to celebrate the Mass. Please make arrangements with the Institute.

3. The lounge area in the Tennent Hall basement and the Campus Center Auditorium are open, with nearly unlimited hours, and are suggested for those who wish to practice their sermon delivery.

4. Trinity Episcopal Church (Mercer Street across from Alexander Street) is open most days and evenings for private worship, meditation and prayer.
